To Whom It May Concern:

I am the property manager for Double H Realty Services, LLC in Plano would I would like to personally recommend Texas Roof Management, Inc. for any maintenance or replacement services for new and existing roof systems.

We have partnered with Texas Roof since 2008 and they have responded to every request for our building in a very professional and courteous manner for our tenants while providing knowledgeable and proficient consultation for our office administration.

Whether they are communicating with property management in providing safety information to tenants, repairing leaks for an existing system, or replacing a roof with prompt and efficiency attention, you would do well to consider the entire staff and administration at Texas Roof, Inc.
